CF_Underground has been held annually as a prelude to Adobe's MAX conference for 9 years. It is geared to bring together the ColdFusion community of developers and gurus in a day of fun and engaging talks from some of the industry%u219s leading CF speakers. CF_Underground will be held on Sunday, November 16th 2008 from 1pm - 5pm at the Adobe headquarters in San Francisco, and then will resume from 5:30pm - 9pm across the street from the Moscone Center at Cheiftain's Irish Pub with free beer and food.

The speakers for CF_Underground include Raymond Camden, Adam Wayne Lehman, Joe Rinehart and Jeff Tapper. Visit the CF_Underground 2008 Website for updates on session topics and news, and information to register.

Register before October 31, 2008 to qualify for the early bird discount. First 20 attendees to register receive a CF_Underground beer mug, and all registered attendees receive a free ColdFusion 8 tag poster.
